The MCGSO provides an annual Professional Development Grants program to Biomedical Graduate Education (BGE) students to advance their scientific education:

1. Attendance to conferences or research forums
2. Attendance to workshops and training conferences
3. Other opportunities for professional development or community building.

- Funds could be used for: meals, travel, registration, lodging, etc.
- Grant request up to $800!

Website: gumcgso.georgetown.edu/grants/professional-development-grants/
Email: gumcgso@georgetown.edu

Accepting application beginning September 13th, 2022
Limited amount of funds available, applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.